

YOUTH WORKERS SEMINAR

Capacity Building for Aboriginal Youth Workers

REGISTER TODAY!
www.nativenetworks.ca

Youth who succeed will take on more challenging and leadership roles in their adulthood

Youth Empowerment workshops and programs are very important for our communities, even more so today, with the vast amount of information pushed upon our Youth. The objective of this seminar is to share ideas with Coordinators, Parents and Care Givers and reveal best practices in guiding our Youth. Discover ingenious and innovative teachings in the in the seminar that will benefit your Youth and organization.

February 15, 2012

Schedule

Aurora Room

Lister Conference Centre
University of Alberta

9:00 AM Youth in todays Environment

10:30 AM Health Break

10:45 AM Celebrating Life Passages for Youth

12:00 PM Lunch (On your Own)

1:00 PM Guiding Youth with Yesterday & Today's Teachings

2:30 PM Health Break

2:45 PM Workshops for your Youth Programs

4:00PM End of Day & Seminar

THEMES

- ➔ Passing on Traditional Knowledge
- ➔ Rights of Passage Awareness
- ➔ Using Social Media for Youth (Facebook, etc)
- ➔ Healing Generational Trauma & Pain

BENEFITS

- ➔ Learn Youth Communication Protocols
- ➔ Gain Confidence in your Work with Youth
- ➔ Enhance your focus on Youth Development

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- ✓ Youth Workers
- ✓ Child Care Workers
- ✓ Parents

Phone Native Networks: 1.888.511.0688

REGISTRATION FORM

FEE $175

Name: _____ Phone: _____ Email: _____

Billing Address: _____

How many Registering: _____ x $175 = $ _____

Please make cheques payable to Native Networks Inc, Box 186, Glenevis, AB, T0E 0X0. Fax this form to: 1.866.836.9599